3. At the outset, Principal Commissioner of Customs (General) welcomed all the members of trade as well as the officers present for the meeting. There was no agenda for the meeting.

4. To begin with, Principal Commissioner of Customs (Gen), informed the forum that the Customs Department is in the process of making a software which has the information of all the details of the CBs i.e. email id of the CB, owner of the CB Firm, details of working in the CB Firm, details of 'G' & 'H' card holders etc. Pr. Commissioner also informed that the department will arrange a training session to make stake holders familiar to the New Software. Pr. Commissioner requested the BCHAA representative that they may ensure that all their members update their contact details and mail ids so that the correspondence relating to CBLR can be directly sent to Authorised Customs Brokers.

5. There was no other point for discussion. However, Commissioner of Customs (Import-I & II) again reiterated that all stakeholders must be proactive in their approach and from time to time they must offer their suggestions to achieve notable improvement in dwell time in clearance of import cargo.

The meeting concluded with a vote of thanks to the chair.
